

Fresh/Beat

Band takes field with old theme, new look

The Sailor Marching Band decided to take audiences back in time with a '90s theme while keeping it fresh with new uniforms.

The '90s theme this year consisted of the songs, "Smells Like Teen Spirit" by Nirvana, "Creep" by Radiohead, "Come Out and Play" by The Offspring, and "Larger than Life" by Backstreet Boys.

"My favorite thing about the show this year is the music and the way it's arranged," said junior Christian Banks, who plays percussion. "The music gives me chills every time I play it."

The band displayed their updated look, which cost $76,000 for 175 uniforms, at the first home football game of the season.

"The uniforms look really sharp this year," senior drum major Sam Rosel. "The drum major ones have capes, and it's a big improvement from the past uniforms."

The new uniforms had many members of the band excited because they would be replacing the ones that had been used for roughly 20 years.

Big Picture: As part of the sousaphone family, sophomore Evan Gergen and freshman Tyree Houston perform the National Anthem before the football team's loss to Rockford on Sept. 20.

(Clockwise from top left) /sophomore A'lyce Brown and senior Lauren Cornell /drum major Sam Rosel, senior /Seth Easterly, junior /Caroline Appold, freshman /Tatum Jackson, senior /senior Allena Bishop leads the trombone section

/junior Tanyah Collins and senior Jordyn Fuentes /Aiden TenHove, junior /freshmen Amelia Schwer and Alyssa Schoonbeck /Brylee Borgman, freshman /Emilia Matuz, freshman

Weekly/Outlook

(clockwise from above) Preparing for the chocolate chip cookie contest, senior Heath Cory mixes batter in Brent Mosley's Culinary Arts class. / Freshman Luke Opfermann fishes out water fleas to test if their heart rate elevates more on caffeine or alcohol. / Completing his jewelry box for Toys for Tots, junior Cesar Morin drills holes for hinges in Advanced Woods. / The Cruisin' Kitchen gave students a chance to try new Mexican cuisine to celebrate National Hispanic Heritage Month (Sept. 15-Oct. 15). / Freshman Carly Califf dissects a heart in Sheila Hunt's Honor Biology class to learn about the blood flow through the heart.

Opening Eyes.../ The Chalkboard Project returns to Shores for the second time

The Chalkboard Project, an anti-bullying campaign, came back to Shores for the second time; previously, it was held in the spring of 2018. On Oct. 23-24, students had their picture taken with a negative word. These photos will be posted in the halls after Thanksgiving when the words will eventually be covered with a sticky note and positive words will replace the negative. Sophomore Diego Luna (top left) and freshman Ava Green (second from right) prepare their word. Seniors Olivia MacDonald and Sara Cappa (middle left) wait in line to get their picture taken. Senior Kiley Jackson (far right) waits for her turn.