and just like that seniors say their goodbyes

Next Steps On seniors last day of school, senior Audrey Harasti hugs her friend junior Rain Davis. Audrey felt relieved to be done with school and was excited to see her friends and family at the walkout. "I'm very excited for my next steps at MSU because I'll be surrounded by people that have similar interests and passions for the humanities and anthropology," Audrey said. (Photo: Wood)

New and Improved With making a round around the entrance, senior Rosie Lian hugs her friend hard as they say their goodbyes. Excited to start her new chapter in life, Rosie is excited to live her life to the fullest. "I'm excited to finally live a life that's mine where every step I take is chosen, not expected. There is something beautiful about becoming who you were always many to be, even if you're still figuring out who that is," Rosie said. (Photo: Schuemann)

Learning Along the Way In his feelings, senior Adrian Toledo hugs family while around his family. With having made mistakes he has learned from them all and feels they have made him who he is. "It's okay to make mistakes as long as you learn from them and make a change," Adrian said. (Photo: Schuemann)

One Last Walk After walking out of Lakeview for the last time with his class, senior Julian Calderon-Diaz poses with his family. His favorite part of high school was being with friends, playing sports, and having good relationships throughout the years. "My advice for upcoming freshmen is enjoy school and do clubs and sports. These are some of the last years you get to make memories with your buddies so don't take it for granted because it goes by so quick," Julian said. (Photo: Wood)

Life Lessons With family and friends, senior Kyler Smith smile while getting his picture taken. Coming in as a freshman not knowing a lot, he came out as a senior learning many life lessons. "I learn not to talk back to the teacher or you will be seeing Japinga," Kyler said. (Photo: Wood)

Friendships That Last While hugging his friends, senior Mitchell Morgan smiles for the camera. High school is full of ups and downs but for Mitchell his favorite part was making friends and learning lessons. "My favorite part about high school is when I was able to meet all my friends and they became my biggest inspiration throughout high school," Mitchell said. (Photo: Wood)

Reflecting Foward With her family, senior Reese Parshall pose for a picture. With coming to the realization that she is growing up she feels it even more important now to show up and enjoy the day. "Upcoming freshman should know to be present and just enjoy school because it really does go by fast," Reese said. (Photo: Schuemann)

just a little fun

Seniors share what they liked about their time during the English 12 kindergarten day

"It was fun. My favorite part was making little Play-Doh things with my friends one last time."

Gabriella Melges, senior

"It was fun, it made me feel like I was a little kid back in elementary again do all these fun things with my friends."

Alyssa Osborn, senior

"It gave me and others the opportunity to not worry about our futures, and just enjoy one last day being with friends."

Bryson Lowery, senior
