

FROSTY MORNINGS:

What’s your favorite part of your morning routine?

- “Making breakfast is my favorite part because I always bring leftovers and pull it out during first hour to eat.”
Ethan Le (10)
- “My favorite part is taking a hot shower in the morning because I’m always freezing when I wake up.”
Jailyn Morris (10)

- “My favorite part of my morning routine is picking out my outfit to wear for the day. I throw it on if it feels like me.”
Lucy Swearingen (10)
- “Getting to school and seeing my friends [is my favorite part of the morning] because they help me grow as a person and I enjoy being around them.”
Jesse Lambert-Sanchez (12)

- “[My favorite part] is getting to watch a movie in the morning because I’m in the class Film As History.”
Alastare Lumene (12)
- “My favorite part of my morning routine is my skincare. Waking up and being able to wash my face and go in with all my products makes me feel so clean and puts me in a better mood.”
Adelina Zambova (12)

A COLD FRONT:

What was the low of your school year?

- “Losing that one soccer game on JV. We weren’t all there that day, so it was pretty upsetting.”
Benjamin Groen (10)
- “My low of the school year is getting up early every day. Normally I get up at 6:45 a.m., but I enjoy sleeping in until 10 a.m.”
Sadie McEvoy (9)

- “Getting a bad grade on my U.S. Government test because I didn’t prepare for it. I was disappointed because I knew I could do better.”
Camrie Holmes (12)
- “Senior year has been very stressful in that there has been a lot to do when I didn’t think there would be. I came into this year thinking it would be very chill and easy.”
Tyler Keefe (12)

- “Taking exams. There was so much studying, especially for English. It was very hard and tiring.”
Japhy Korzecke (12)
- “Failing my AP World exam [was a low] because I feel like I studied really hard for it.”
Laila Armstead-Williams (10)

MISTY MEMORIES:

What is your favorite memory from this school year?

- “Meeting new friends has been my favorite part of the year so far. We’ve made some good memories hanging out and going downtown.”
Kingston Hart-Tillery (10)
- “Meeting my partner and having her come into my life. I feel confident now because I feel loved.”
Adrienne Gamble (9)

- “My favorite memory was hanging out with my friends at winter formal and meeting a lot of new people.”
Lainey Hampton (12)
- “One of my favorite memories this year was leaving for winter break because I got to hang out with my friends after school for a bit.”
Rayyan Meghani (11)

- “My favorite memory is when I would hang out with my friends because they are really cool and fun to be around.”
Charles Valas (10)
- “My favorite memory from school this year was the fire drill that was not a fire drill because I liked skipping school.”
Deonte Nelson (10)

EYE OF THE STORM:

How do you find calm with a busy schedule?

- “I set aside time for myself, so I’m not stressed all of the time. I usually relax by sitting around watching TV and playing video games.”
Jack Vlahos (9)
- “I find my calm with a busy schedule by planning out my day with a to-do list and timing it out as well.”
Josef Veselovsky (11)

- “I try to organize everything and just stay on task and try to not get sidetracked when I’m busy.”
Isaac Bucceri (10)
- “I don’t really think about being super busy and I don’t stress too much.”
Lucas Chambi (10)

- “I just finish stuff as soon as possible because you cannot be late for something, but you have to take your time sometimes.”
Kaylee Broesamle (9)
- “I find calm in a busy schedule through music and finding time to hang out with friends.”
Corissa Pittman (10)

AHEAD:

What’s something you’re looking forward to when the year ends?

“This summer I’m looking forward to going to Germany
as part of the MSU exchange program.”
Samuel Ritz (10)

“Summer. I want to be walking around all summer doing stuff. I finally got my license and I want to be everywhere other than Lansing.”
Kai Tubbs (10)

“I’m looking forward to hanging out with my friends and driving around with them.”
Ava Letts (11)

“I want to get a job this summer. I don’t exactly know what type of job
I am going to get, but I would like to work with little kids.”
Layla Spencer (10)

“I’m looking forward to going to South Carolina and touring colleges.”
Garrett O’Donnell (11)

“I’m looking forward to the summer time and seeing family.”
Miriam Zevada (9)

BLIZZARD OF ACTIVITY:

What has been the most stressful part of your year?

“I missed a bunch of school in the first semester, so it was hard for me to catch up on some of my classes.”
Rowan Babcock (11)

“The most stressful part of the year was writing my college essay and college applications overall.”
Joseph Budzyn (12)

“A stressful time was getting cut from the basketball team because I trained hard.”
Josh Passino (10)

“The most stressful part of my year was applying to colleges because I don’t like getting rejected so I applied to a lot.”
Ahmed Elgack (12)

“[The most stressful part of my year] has been being sick and getting behind in work.”
Farrah Hodgkinson (11)

“The most stressful part of my year has been Sculpture because I suck at drawing. We had to make sketches for our sculptures and I didn’t realize that before I signed up.”
Naziyah Hall (12)

THUNDEROUS
APPLAUSE:

What’s something you’re proud you’ve accomplished?

“I’m proud of myself for taking an AP class and passing it first semester.”
Ash Loachridge (10)

“I’m proud of having a 3.8 GPA and keeping my grades up throughout this year.”
Bardan Rawal (9)

“I’m proud of getting to class on time and keeping my grades up.”
Miranda Miller (10)

“I’m proud of putting myself out there and getting to know more people. I’ve been participating more in school and activities.”
Yvonne Ugbesia (9)

“I’m proud of the new friends I’ve made. I enjoy the classes I am in this year and think they’re fun.”
Dennis Wardlaw (9)

“I’m proud of getting a good test grade on my science final because it’s not my favorite class and I struggle a little bit with science.”
Amara Weiler (12)

GUSTY TALES:

What’s your favorite adventure from the school year?

“The best adventure I’ve had is knowing how to be better at managing my time after being injured, and how to rebound from it.”
Payton Veith (10)

“The craziest adventure I’ve had this year is when I was driving with my best friend Reena and she got pulled over on Burcham.”
Nola Moore (11)

“I’ve been traveling a ton this year. Both of my siblings go to college out of state so the rest of my family likes to visit and I often come along. It’s pretty fun and exciting to see my family despite the distance.”
Katie Ford (10)

“Sophomore year has been a very compelling, fun and a challenging adventure all at once. I’m just trying to enjoy it before junior and senior year gets more serious.”
Treasure Kakaire (10)

“I had to take a test in science and I ended up doing really good on it, and I even got extra credit. I was very proud of myself.”
Gabriela Solomon (9)

“Going to the Multicultural Assembly was an amazing experience. It was cool seeing people from various different cultures. I was proud of my classmates for getting up on stage and showing off their culture.”
Finn Shangraw (9)
